Anthony "Tony" Castillo

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me.
To be a happy me.
I'd like to leave an after glow.
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy time and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories
That I leave when life is done.*

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the good faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day....

2 Timothy 4:7-8

Anthony "Tony" Castillo was born on September 28, 1949 to Elsie and Felipe Castillo in Houston, Texas. He was called to Heaven on August 29, 2010 surrounded by his loving family and friends.

Tony lived a full and adventurous life. He faced each day with such positive energy always putting others before himself up to his last days.

He made a wonderful life for himself in Austin, Texas, enjoying spending time with his loved ones. He was an avid University of Texas football fan and enjoyed watching the Longhorns win national titles. One of the most rewarding benefits of owning his company, Synergy DataCom, was the close friendships he acquired. His business associates became long time friends.

Tony captivated people with his beautiful smile, charismatic charm and never ending sense of humor. As a young man and on into adulthood, music played a big role in his life. At his annual Lake Travis yacht party, the highlight of the evening was when Tony sang rhythm and blues for his guests.

Tony had a kind and giving heart. In 2006, he volunteered for an "Extreme Makeover Home Edition" in Sabine Pass, Texas. His love for helping children in need was demonstrated when he would organize yearly Christmas motorcycle rides, delivering toys to children in Austin area hospitals. He loved to surf, travel and cook.

He loved his family more than anything and kept each individual member close to his heart. Tony's biggest joy was spending time with his mom, son, grandchildren, siblings, nephews and nieces. While on his frequent business trips, to Houston, his family looked forward to his very special "Uncle Tony breakfast."

Tony made such an impact in our lives and will forever live in our hearts.
